

The Cochrane Art Club is a registered Society that strives to enhance the artistic abilities of each of its members. Currently the Club encourages the development of two-dimensional flat works in all mediums, including oil, acrylic, watercolour, pen & ink, pastel, pencil (graphite and coloured pencil), porcelain, alcohol inks, etc. The Club encourages members to participate in group functions and various committees; and eventually to accept positions required to manage the affairs of the Club.

Enjoy:

- Camaraderie and exchange of knowledge that happens when painting with other artists.
- Workshops / Critiques / Demos / Group Lessons.
- Weekend painting (open studios and two-day instructional workshops).
- Displaying artwork in our annual events:
 - May Fine Art Show & Sale at the Cochrane Ranchehouse
 - November Small Works Art Sale at Cochrane Alliance Church.

Information:

- The annual fee is $150.00.
 - Reviewed annually at the AGM
- Our painting year runs from the beginning of September to the end of May. Additional Summer activities may be organized.
- Additional fees will be required for Instructional Workshops.
- Weekly evening meetings are held at St. Andrew's United Church Hall in Cochrane, from 6:00 to 8:30 pm, two or three Tuesdays monthly. In addition, some afternoon meetings are scheduled in the fall. A schedule is issued at the start of the painting year.
 - Meetings can be for business, open painting, or instructional purposes
- Weekend instructional sessions and open studio painting are held at the Beaupre Community Hall, in a beautiful setting west of Cochrane. Hours for all weekend sessions are: 9:30 am to 4:30 pm, Saturday and Sunday. Depending on availability of the hall, Open Painting on a Monday follows a weekend session.
